Wolfcatcher is 5 lb higher for winning a 3-runner event at Musselburgh but he beat a subsequent winner in good style that day so may emerge as the biggest threat.

TIMEFORM VIEW: MAGIC OF LIGHT has to prove that she's as effective over hurdles, but her chase form (including a career-best win at Newbury last month) marks her out as the one to beat. Culture de Sivola is more straightforward than If You Say Run so could reverse Kempton form, while Jester Jet isn't out of this, either.

| TIMEFORM VIEW: BALLYMOY's latest victory was never in doubt as he sauntered clear from the front and, while this looks more competitive, he's still firmly on the up and unexposed at this sort of trip, so he can extend his winning run unless there's another step up from recent Wetherby scorer Thosedaysaregone. However, he remains a low-mileage chaser on a competitive mark and is fancied to go close back down in trip. Belami Des Pictons is a fascinating contender if ready to roll on return, though the chief threat may come in the shape of Mr Medic. | | | | | | |
