TIMEFORM VIEW: Some big names have won this over the years and JERRY'S BACK could be the latest on the roll of honour. A point winner in Ireland, he's quickly made up into a smart chaser, winning at Bangor before following home an exciting unbeaten one of Kim Bailey's at Ascot. There is more to come from him and he makes most appeal. Crucial Role was impressive at Uttoxeter and is worth his place in this.

TIMEFORM VIEW: Little to separate these five. SILVER STREAK has already had one good pay day over C&D and could be the way to go as he appears to still be on the up if anything. Western Ryder is held by the selection on last month's Cheltenham form but he's building up a solid record and could be the one to give him most to do.
