ATR VERDICT: GALVIN arrives here unbeaten after striking on his hurdles debut at Perth in August and he is expected to successfully concede weight all round on his return from a break. He's considered the pick of Gordon Elliott's duo ahead of Ayr winner Whoshotthesherriff, while the 123-rated Minella Times has an obvious chance if running to his rating. Smoking Gun is heading in the right direction and cannot be ruled out, nor can Limerick scorer Press Conference.

ATR VERDICT: FACE THE FACTS is rated 104 on the Flat after winning twice in that sphere for John Gosden, including in a Listed event over 2m. He shaped with an abundance of promise on his return from a break when second over 2m3f on his hurdles bow at Naas last month and likely has more to offer on his second start for Willie Mullins. Recent Cork third Discordantly has place claims, as do Gigginstown pair Moratorium and Diol Ker.

ATR VERDICT: Ronald Pump seemed to relish the step up to 3m when scoring at Fairyhouse last time but now 13lb higher and dropping back in trip, it might be worth taking him on with CHATHAM STREET LAD. He was only beaten half a length into second over this trip when last sighted at Cork and is expected to remain competitive off 4lb higher. Melly And Me and Agusta Gold are two other consistent and progressive performers to include on the shortlist.

ATR VERDICT: Chasing has been put on hold for Goose Man, having only got as far as the first at Leopardstown over Christmas, and he is a more than interesting prospect reverting to timber off a 30lb lower mark. However, a step back up in trip could be just what is required for EVISCERATING, who caught the eye over 2m at Naas last time and can build on that third-placed finish off just a 2lb higher rating. Caniwillyegiveme and Load Up Time are others who make appeal in this contest.

ATR VERDICT: WESTLAND ROW ran a cracker at Thurles when second over the Christmas period and he could go one better today. The seven-year-old made good progress there, just losing out to a potentially smart type after a big jump at the last. His main rival could be Stoneford, who didn't impress with a few of his leaps at Tipperary when last seen in May. Ah Littleluck ran on well over 2m5f at Roscommon last time and could improve for this additional yardage.

ATR VERDICT: FERGIETHELEGEND shaped well at Thurles four weeks ago when third and the 13-year-old has been found a nice opening to claim an overdue success. He stayed on well behind two less exposed types that day and although that risk applies again here, a few of these arrive lacking confidence. Milanesque might need a prominent ride in order to go close, while Cap'n merits a market check on his stable debut for Paul Flynn with Paul Townend doing the steering.

ATR VERDICT: LARQUEBUSE struck between the flags in March and was thwarted by a neck when third on her first start under Rules at Limerick on St Stephen's Day. Gordon Elliott's charge rates the one to beat with normal improvement anticipated. Stablemate Lady Of Elysium should know her job first time out and is worth a market check to ascertain the level of confidence behind her chances, while it would come as no surprise to see Jessica Harrington's Papal Pearl also give a good account first time out.
