ATR VERDICT: Like many from the Sue Smith stable, TROOBLUE showed a fantastic attitude when winning a class 4 handicap over C&D recently and a 5lb rise probably won't be enough to anchor her if arriving in the same determined mood. Steel City posted a solid third-placed effort over hurdles at Catterick latest and he warrants respect switching back to fences with a first-time tongue-tie equipped, while Domestic Diva merits consideration just 1lb higher than when placed on her chasing bow.

Top Tip: TROOBLUE (2)

Watch out for: STEEL CITY (1)

ATR VERDICT: Wetherby third Ingleby Hollow warrants plenty of respect with Richard Johnson coming in for the ride, while Torrid has placed in both hurdle starts thus far and is likely to be in the shake-up again. However, it could pay to take a chance on NH debutant TAGUR. The five-year-old has been in cracking form on the Flat recently, winning twice and finishing runner-up in his last three starts, and Kevin Ryan does very well with the few jumps runners that he sends out.

Top Tip: TAGUR (7)

Watch out for: INGLEBY HOLLOW (3)

Long Handicap: Scorpo 9 - 13

ATR VERDICT: Beallandendall had posted a string of solid efforts before hitting the deck at Chepstow and hopefully that nasty experience won't have knocked his confidence, while King Vince is no forlorn hope off 1lb lower than when fourth at Plumpton. However, the vote goes to BRIAC, who switches back to fences off the same mark as when scoring impressively over hurdles at Ffos Las last week. With only one previous start in this sphere under his belt (fell at Hereford in November), he remains open to plenty of improvement.

Top Tip: BRIAC (4)

ATR VERDICT: KATY ROYAL gets the nod with this marathon trip expected to suit. Her sole victory to date came over an extended 2m7f at Hexham and she always appears to be doing her best work at the end of races, suggesting she will relish every yard of this distance. Perfect Pirate was much improved at Warwick last time and he is an interesting runner for Ben Pauling, while Quick Pick, Drill Baby Drill and Pat's Oscar add further spice to the race.

ATR VERDICT: Winning pointer HILL SIXTEEN, an expensive six-figure recruit to Sue Smith's Craiglands base, has been involved at the business end in all three outings over hurdles so far, and despite looking sure to be suited by a step up to three miles in the future, could have too much class here for his rivals representing a yard which won this contest last season. Windsor Avenue landed a bumper here last year and has chased home some useful rivals in between a comfortable win at Hexham in November. Kelso bumper winner Romeo Brown, who was third in a Listed affair at Cheltenham on his debut, is of interest on his first start for Philip Kirby, while Massini Man has some smart form to his name and needs respect.

Long Handicap: Allnite 9 - 11, Millrose Bell 9 - 7, Sory 9 - 7

ATR VERDICT: BERTIE BLAKE disappointed when sent off favourite at Wetherby over the Christmas period, but can bounce back here off the same rating at a track he was second at over a similar distance in November. Our Delboy will appreciate the sounder surface he encounters here and his mark continues to dip, while Emerald Chieftan is not without a chance for local handler Rebecca Menzies.
