ATR VERDICT: LASKADINE was an impressive winner of a Listed hurdle on her final start in France back in September and she is hard to oppose today, despite having to carry a 6lb penalty. The Crooner is another who has to be respected based on his form from France, while Faldo and Safarhi may improve for the switch to hurdles having been moderate on the Flat.

Top Tip: LASKADINE (10)

ATR VERDICT: SHANTUNG struggled in a Listed hurdle when last seen shortly before Christmas but her previous easy victory at Lingfield suggests that she can win a race of this nature. Yellow Dockets won well over this C&D a few weeks weeks ago and she is likely to be the main threat to the selection, ahead of Executive Capilano and Viva Vittoria.

ATR VERDICT: ANGE DES MALBERAUX was an impressive winner at Market Rasen on Boxing Day, his fourth win of the season, and a 7lb rise in the ratings may not be enough to stop him from taking this contest as well. Muckle Roe has been knocking on the door of late and should go well once again, while others to consider are Gardiners Hill, Goodnight Charlie and Plus One.

ATR VERDICT: The smooth-travelling CAPTAIN CARGO bumped into a well-handicapped rival last time when picking up his second silver medal in a row over this course and distance, but Caroline Bailey's lightly-raced seven-year-old is still feasibly treated and is likely to be thereabouts at the finish over a distance he clearly enjoys. Book of Gold has always been held in high regard but is yet to fulfil his promise on the track and he is interesting back over hurdles having struggled in two outings over the larger obstacles. Ocean Cove is a dour stayer and Fergal O'Brien's consistent performer is respected on his first outing since wind surgery, with Oh Land Abloom also of interest off a mark just 1lb higher than when second in a Pertemps qualifier over a furlong shorter here earlier this month.

ATR VERDICT: DYLIEV stayed on well to score comfortably over course and distance earlier this month and Caroline Bailey's six-year-old is entitled to be involved once again off just a 6lb higher mark. Darlyn could have more progression to come and is of real interest in search of a hat-trick, while Nearly Famous is an interesting recruit to Grace Harris' stable having scored at Ballinrobe on his last appearance in Ireland. Consistent duo Paddy The Chef and Metatrons Cube have been going close of late and are others who warrant consideration.

ATR VERDICT: SHANTOU FLYER was just a neck away from Cheltenham Festival success in the Ultima last season and was last seen running well for a long way in the Grand National. He makes his first start now in the colours of David Maxwell, with his enthusiastic owner in the saddle, and the nine-year-old could prove to be a cut above in this sphere, especially if a summer wind operation has had the desired effect. Double Ross' best days are perhaps behind him but he has enough ability to play a part at this level, while Cousin Pete was third in the Foxhunter at the Festival and the route to Prestbury Park starts here for Elizabeth Brown's 11-year-old, who opened his lungs in a Barbury point in December.

Top Tip: SHANTOU FLYER (5)

Watch out for: DOUBLE ROSS (13)
