ATR VERDICT: Sticky jumping in the crucial stages cost the smooth-travelling SKY KHAN victory on his reappearance at Wetherby on Boxing Day, but the 10-year-old can make amends off just a 1lb higher mark if producing a cleaner round of hurdling. The form of that race looks useful with the winner involved at the finish in a competitive contest at the weekend and the veteran will surely have appreciated his first run since August. Warren Greatrex has his string in good order and his Mahlervous makes his first outing since wind surgery. He may have flopped on his most recent run, but went close at Cheltenham before that and remains well treated if the operation has had the desired effect. Katgary is interesting reverting to timber, while Uptown Funk wasn't far away at Musselburgh on New Year's Day and drops in trip now off a 1lb lower rating with Brian Hughes taking over in the plate.

Top Tip: SKY KHAN (4)

Watch out for: MAHLERVOUS (5)
