ATR VERDICT: If this contest has been run at its traditional home, Newbury, then ante-post favourite Al Dancer, an impressive winner at Cheltenham last time out, would have been the one to be on, though the switch to this alternative venue opens up the possibility of DIDTHEYLEAVEUOUTTO landing an opportunistic victory. Nick Gifford's smooth-travelling six-year-old won a Listed bumper here in 2017 and struck over C&D in November on good ground. He needs to leave behind a wayward effort at Kempton on Boxing Day but conditions that day may not have suited and he looks an interesting contender against the market leaders now back on his old stomping ground. Getaway Trump travelled strongly over 2m1f at Exeter in December and could also take a hand now dropping back in trip on the back of picking up the silver medal in the Challow.

Top Tip: DIDTHEYLEAVEUOUTTO (6)

Watch out for: AL DANCER (4)
