Acquired by new yard for €90,000 and disappointed in Cheltenham Grade 2 last month but not one to write off. ★★★★★ (Forecast 3.50)					Notes:
TIMEFORM VIEW: DOGON showed fairly useful form in France and clearly wasn't 100% when pulled up on his British/yard debut at Cheltenham last month, folding tamely approaching 3 out. However, he's in excellent hands and worth another chance on balance. Katpoli is feared most returned to a right-handed venue, ahead of Lord Duveen.

TIMEFORM VIEW: RONS DREAM is a thoroughly likeable and consistent mare who is the marginal pick at the weights, so she's the percentage call in a mares' listed event that looks to be well-contested despite the small field. Atlanta Ablaze and Molly Childers are both going the right way but, if it comes down to a tussle late on, the selection's toughness is likely to see her prevail.

TIMEFORM VIEW: SCEAU ROYAL has achieved high-class form over fences since last tackling hurdles in 2017 and this looks to be a good piece of placing by connections back over the smaller obstacles having found the Tingle Creek too much last time. Unison is an uncomplicated/very likeable front runner and is feared most.

Notes:

TIMEFORM VIEW: SOME CHAOS seemingly failed to cope with the demands of the track at Cheltenham on New Year's Day. He was progressive prior to that and is taken to resume winning ways. Like several of these, Final Nudge has something to prove at present but the 10-y-o has to be feared off a mark 4 lb lower than when going close in last season's Badger Ales Trophy. Like The Sound also has claims.

TIMEFORM VIEW: In an open finale it's perhaps worth chancing the class-dropping WAIHEKE, who travelled well until a blunder 2 out at Sandown last time, and there's also a possibility first-time headgear could have a positive effect. Soulsaver, handicap-newcomer Crossley Tender and Gary Moore's Ruby Yeats head the many possible dangers.
