ATR VERDICT: A match race can go the way of the in-form Alan King and CHOSEN PATH. The six-year-old stuck his neck out to land a competitive event at Newbury in December, and he looks to have more to offer over staying trips. He can land this before maybe moving into a handicap at one of the big spring festivals. Although Skipthecuddles was deemed good enough to run in a Grade 2, he was disappointing at Chepstow subsequently and arrives with a little to prove just now.

Top Tip: CHOSEN PATH (1)

Watch out for: SKIPTHECUDDLES (2)
