ATR VERDICT: Off You Go won a tough handicap at the Dublin Racing Festival for the second year running and should remain competitive despite this rise in class, while Cracking Smart, who was placed at Grade 1 level last season, is entitled to improve for his comeback spin in the Christmas Hurdle at Leopardstown. However, the one who appeals most is BACHASSON. Hurdles or fences, it seems to make no difference to this talented eight-year-old and Willie Mullins left the impression that he would improve significantly for his impressive comeback win at Punchestown on New Year's Eve.

Top Tip: BACHASSON (2)

Watch out for: OFF YOU GO (5)
