ATR VERDICT: Raya Time has some solid form under his belt, with a third-placed effort behind two subsequent winners at Leopardstown on St Stephen's Day being the standout. He looks sure to be in the shake-up, but slight preference is for hurdling newcomer BEHIND THE CURTAIN. The five-year-old has won and finished runner-up in two bumpers and jumping is unlikely to be an issue coming from the Noel Meade stable. Milan Native also merits consideration following his pleasing debut in a Leopardstown bumper over the Christmas period.

ATR VERDICT: Off You Go won a tough handicap at the Dublin Racing Festival for the second year running and should remain competitive despite this rise in class, while Cracking Smart, who was placed at Grade 1 level last season, is entitled to improve for his comeback spin in the Christmas Hurdle at Leopardstown. However, the one who appeals most is BACHASSON. Hurdles or fences, it seems to make no difference to this talented eight-year-old and Willie Mullins left the impression that he would improve significantly for his impressive comeback win at Punchestown on New Year's Eve.

ATR VERDICT: GENEVA BARRACKS built on his pleasing Cork reappearance when scoring gamely at Naas and despite a 5lb rise in the ratings, he looks sure to play a leading role in this contest. Oscars Den has struck the crossbar on his last couple of starts and is likely to be in the mix again, while Mystique Heights also warrants respect following his determined Naas success.

ATR VERDICT: CHAMPAGNE CLASSIC has some top-class hurdles form under his belt, and had the likes of Penhill, Monalee, Al Boum Photo and Presenting Percy all behind when winning at the 2017 Punchestown Festival. He shaped with lots of promise when third on his chasing debut in Grade 3 company at Naas last month and, entitled to improve significantly for that first run in 641 days, can reverse form with the runner-up Chris's Dream en route to landing the spoils. Any Second Now also has a squeak following his fifth in the Paddy Power Chase.

ATR VERDICT: UCELLO CONTI, a 149-rated performer in his pomp, made the perfect start to life as a hunter chaser when scoring readily at Thurles (albeit his task was made easier by a last-fence faller) and he is fancied to complete the double today. Sydney Paget was only half a length behind the former in a Aghabullogue point-to-point contest last month so he must enter calculations, while Timewaitsfornoone, runner-up at the Punchestown Festival when last sighted, adds further spice to the race.

ATR VERDICT: STUCKER HILL failed to complete the hat-trick when falling at the fourth-last at Punchestown last month but can make amends on this occasion having proved very progressive since beginning life in handicap company. Gliondar Mo Chroi won a novice handicap event at Punchestown on her latest start and is respected despite an 8lb rise, while Isabel's Gold can prove better than her effort at Tramore on New Year's Day.

ATR VERDICT: ELEAZAR DES NEIGES finished third on his sole point-to-point outing a year ago and looks an interesting prospect on his Rules debut for Henry de Bromhead with Patrick Mullins taking the ride. Multifactorial has shown a solid level of form on both starts so far this season and is likely to be competitive once again, while stable companion Thatsy has experience from the pointing field and completes the shortlist.
