Long Handicap: Foxrush Take Time 9 - 4

ATR VERDICT: COMPASS POINT remains open to plenty of improvement and wasn't disgraced at Wolverhampton last time when fourth following a 135-day absence. He looks a big player if handling Fibresand, and could prove too strong for Bee Machine, who likes it here and has shaped well of late. Greyzee narrowly failed to land a gamble on Tapeta last time and should take another step forward at this sort of level.

Top Tip: COMPASS POINT (1)
Watch out for: BEE MACHINE (2)

Long Handicap: Seaquinn 8 - 1, Coiste Bodhar 8 - 1

ATR VERDICT: SOOQAAN was delivered in the final furlong to score here eight days ago and a 6lb penalty might not be enough to prevent Antony Brittain's charge from following up. Still on a fair mark, he is good enough to hold his form here and could prove too hot for these to handle. Bond Angel has shaped well in defeat the last twice and her record here reads 181132, while Thunder Buddy is another course specialist who warrants respect wearing cheekpieces for the first time.

Top Tip: SOOQAAN (2)

ATR VERDICT: SO HI SPEED showed enough last season to suggest that he can win one of these and it is worth noting ahead of his Fibresand debut that he has been gelded since he was last seen in July. The three-year-old was deemed good enough to run in a conditions race in France and won't get a better chance than this to shed the maiden tag. Kadiz has plenty of early pace and looks a danger, while newcomer Gupta requires a market check.

ATR VERDICT: Zylan is 2-2 over C&D and is a must for the shortlist under 5lb claimer Ben Sanderson, while Angel Palanas would be no surprise winner and Kamra is another worthy of a second look. Preferred ahead of all, though, is BLACK SALT, who is 2-3 over track and trip and was dropped 2lb in the weights for what wasn't a bad run at Newcastle last time. The son of Equiano should appreciate the return to this venue.

Top Tip: BLACK SALT (6)

ATR VERDICT: EPITAPH represents the bang in-form Mick Appleby stable and arrives buoyed by his latest distance success at Wolverhampton, for which a 5lb rise in the weights might not be enough to prevent the follow up. A C&D winner to boot, he can get the better of Mearing, who must concede weight to the selection but is a consistent performer. Love Rat is another who cannot go unconsidered.

Long Handicap: Kylluke 9 - 0, Intense Starlet 9 - 0, Tina Teaspoon 9 - 0, Tally's Song 9 - 0

ATR VERDICT: GORGEOUS GENERAL arrives in the form of his career having won three of his last four starts, including two at this track. Versatile in regards to trip, still on a good mark and open to more improvement, the son of Captain Gerrard ticks plenty of boxes and is taken to send his supporters home smiling. Geography Teacher has a nice racing weight and lines up full of confidence following his latest course success, while Novabridge looks one for the each-way player.
