ATR VERDICT: There wasn't much splitting Paris Duvet (second) and Lovee Dovee (fourth) in a 7f course maiden last month and that pair both warrant respect, with Feather Step and Full Moon Magic a couple of newcomers to watch out for. However, it could pay to side with CLOSER NOW, who was a big eye-catcher when fifth on her debut in a hot 1m maiden at the Curragh (second, seventh and ninth have all won since) and that experience certainly won't have been lost on her.

Top Tip: CLOSER NOW (1)

ATR VERDICT: Togoville won nicely over 6f here last week and a return to 1m shouldn't bother the two-time C&D winner, but preference is for the top-rated AUSSIE VALENTINE. He was given a lovely ride by Daire Davis, who claims a valuable 10lb, when third over track and trip two weeks ago and that first outing since October will have blown any cobwebs away. Hasselnott has been running consistently well in claimers at this venue and he merits consideration equipped with first-time blinkers on his debut for Anthony McCann.

ATR VERDICT: JERED MADDOX stepped up on his pleasing debut performance when half-a-length second over C&D at the beginning of this month and, with further improvement on the cards, he could make it third time lucky. Marshall Law was steadily edging closer to the target in three starts last year and he is entitled to go close on his reappearance, while Oneiroi, who was touched off over 1m here latest, and Joseph O'Brien's newcomer Red Sole Diva add further spice to the race.

ATR VERDICT: MULZAMM looks to have found his level and impressed when second on stable debut last week over a mile. The drop in trip to 7f should suit the seven-year-old and he has been found a nice opening here to strike now under the experienced Kevin Manning. Hey Pretty has shaped well the last twice and remains in excellent form, while Victorious Secret looked flat last time but was previously progressive and might be worth another chance.

ATR VERDICT: CREST OF A WAVE is open to greater improvement than most in this field, and outran 25-1 odds when second here four weeks ago on her handicap debut. A 2lb rise might not be enough to prevent her from shedding the maiden tag, and she can confirm form with Very Smart, who was third behind her last time but should be in the mix once more. Tyrconnell and stable newcomer Smart Stinger are also noted.

ATR VERDICT: LIBRAS POWER has performed creditably in four maiden starts and should be better suited by handicaps off an opening mark of 57. The three-year-old is unexposed over this 6f trip, and could reverse form with Rain Or Shine, who beat the selection by just over a length here over 7f last month. She's My Dream wears blinkers for the first time and should have been freshened up by a 93-day break.

ATR VERDICT: CHAPARRAL DREAM ran out an easy winner of a course and distance handicap last time and despite a 9lb rise for that triumph, he looks to have enough up his sleeve to be involved once again. Sharjah was nine lengths adrift in fourth that day but the multiple course winner can finish closer on revised terms, while Ringo Kid is interesting stepping back up in trip.

ATR VERDICT: Edification and Alhajjaj were both likeable winners of the respective divisions of a course and distance handicap last month and both could be thereabouts once again if in the same form. However, SHEISDIESEL relished the step up in distance when getting the better of Reckless Lad (second) and Carried (third) over track and trip three weeks ago and there is likely to be a lot more to come from her.
