TIMEFORM VIEW: FERROBIN admittedly didn't beat a great bunch at Huntingdon 13 days ago, but he couldn't have done it any more emphatically and looks capable of following up with further improvement on the cards. There should be better to come from Heatstroke so long as he stands up to his racing, while Ashutor is also worthy of close consideration.

TIMEFORM VIEW: There was lots to like about BURROWS EDGE's reappearance run over C&D 3 weeks ago and he can build on that and go one better now. The Warren Greatrex pair Star of Lanka and Mahlervous are going the right way and are likely to give Nicky Henderson's charge something to think about. My Way is another who should go well.

Timeform says: Point winner who beat Lalor over hurdles last term and has made a promising start over fences, encouraging sixth in strong handicap at Cheltenham when last seen in January. Looks the one to beat.

TIMEFORM VIEW: EL TERREMOTO looks to have been let in rather lightly from an opening chase mark of 137 and almost proved the point when second despite an inadequate test at Kelso last time, so there's every chance he can go one better here, acknowledging that Brother Tedd and potential-improver Onefortheroadtom should ensure it's not all plain sailing.
