ATR VERDICT: This looks between the four past hurdle winners. Dasher Drasher has a double penalty to shoulder but his last-start Ascot success proved that he's as tough as teak, while Breaking Waves is getting better with every start over timber and beat off a useful opponent at Huntingdon. The David Pipe-trained Remastered also merits consideration but MORNING VICAR gets the nod. The six-year-old has looked smart since day one - winning a bumper at this venue - and, still fairly green in his races, there looks to be a lot more to come from the last-time-out Ludlow scorer.

Top Tip: MORNING VICAR (3)

Watch out for: DASHEL DRASHER (1)
