TIMEFORM VIEW: The fact that ANNAMIX was installed as favourite for the Supreme before running for Willie Mullins has to be significant, and though he could manage only second starting out at Limerick in December, he's well worth another chance (sports a tongue tie). Raya Time should give his running again, with Late Again an each-way player.

TIMEFORM VIEW: YORKHILL was a really smart chaser on his day and, while his Cheltenham success (JLT Novices' Chase) in 2017 probably isn't a true reflection of where he's at now, he still had plenty of ability when last seen over hurdles 9 months ago and there's a good chance his shrewd handler will have him primed here. Stablemates Acapella Bourgeois and Polidam are his clearest rivals.

Notes:

TIMEFORM VIEW: ROYAL THIEF looked an excellent prospect when third in a novice at Naas on hurdling debut, form that has since been boosted by the runner-up, and he should have little trouble getting off the mark in just an average bumper. Baboin is the chief threat but much more exposed, while the newcomer Mitchell One can't be completely ruled out.
