ATR VERDICT: Champ's winning run came to an end when second to City Island in the Ballymore at the Cheltenham Festival, but he lost little in defeat and it will be interesting to see if the step up to three miles can help the exciting Seven Barrows inmate get back to winning ways. Stablemate Downtown Getaway got off the mark at Ascot following a tussle with Champagne Well and both should be suited by the stamina test here, while Dallas Des Pictons travelled like a Graded horse when finishing second in the Martin Pipe at the Festival and is another who will appreciate the return to this trip. However, preference is for EMITOM, who has gone from strength to strength this season, showing plenty of guts to win under a double penalty last time, and is more than entitled to take his place in Grade 1 company now. He can confirm Ffos Las superiority over Lisnagar Oscar, who represents the Albert Bartlett form and the Prestbury Park fifth should be better suited by this flatter track, so has a chance of making the podium.

Top Tip: EMITOM (7)

Watch out for: LISNAGAR OSCAR (10)
