ATR VERDICT: Mcfabulous looks sure to be popular having bounced back to winning ways with a six-length victory over some exciting prospects at Newbury last month and the half-brother to Waiting Patiently heads here with a favourite's chance. However, he has a bit to find with MASTER DEBONAIR from when they met in a Listed contest at Cheltenham in November and Colin Tizzard's five-year-old is backed to leave his disappointing Champion Bumper effort in the past and confirm superiority with the Paul Nicholls-trained runner here. There was very little pace in that Festival contest and the son of Yeats was keen that day, with the lack of a recent run also coming into play when the race developed. He should strip fitter today and can give a better account of his ability. Dewcup, Blackhillsofdakota and Santa Rossa are three highly-respected contenders from Ireland, with the latter a comfortable winner of a Leopardstown Grade 2 last time.

Top Tip: MASTER DEBONAIR (3)
Watch out for: MCFABULOUS (4)
