ATR VERDICT: MISTER CAPITANO is a half-brother to a German Group 2 winner and has to warrant the utmost respect on his debut for champion trainer Willie Mullins in what looks an easy enough opening considering the form on offer. The Liz Doyle pairing of Flash De Clerval and Fox Le Bel both make some appeal with the former open to improvement on his fourth at Gowran, while Carnet De Stage looks a player on his Limerick second last month.

Top Tip: MISTER CAPITANO (9)

ATR VERDICT: SASSY YET CLASSY won a bumper at Listowel in September before finding the step up to Listed class too much for her at Fairyhouse a fortnight ago. The step up in trip on hurdles debut looks ideal for the daughter of Gold Well and she can prove too strong for the likes of Fiveaftermidnight, who is better than her disappointing effort at Wexford last time suggests, and newcomer Stellar Stow, who is a half-sister to a dual hurdles winner.

ATR VERDICT: RATHNURE REBEL took a step forward from his chase debut when second to Burrows Saint at Gowran last month and Noel Meade's gelding can go one better on this occasion. Beyond The Law was no match for Class Conti at Tramore last Sunday but is capable of being in the mix once again, while Western Honour has the scope to make up into a decent type over the larger obstacles.

ATR VERDICT: KILLULTAGH VIC hasn't tasted success since December 2017 and might not get a better chance to do so than this. Willie Mullins' veteran would be hard to beat if replicating the level of performance shown when third in the Galmoy Hurdle at Gowran Park earlier this year and is well ahead of this field on official ratings back over fences. Westerner Point has looked progressive in victory the last twice and deserves to step up to this level, while Call It Magic unseated at a relatively early stage in the Topham at Aintree last time but is still respected.

ATR VERDICT: The ground looks to have come right for TULLY EAST, who was far from disgraced in the Coral Cup at Cheltenham last month and arrives here on his lowest mark since February 2017. This trip might be a little sharp for him, but he has the best overall form in this field and looks hard to ignore. Rocky's Silver has won three of his last four races and is interesting back over hurdles, while Laverteen beat a decent field at Downpatrick four weeks ago and warrants a second glance.

ATR VERDICT: WHISKEY SOUR ran with real credit to finish fourth in the County Hurdle at Cheltenham last month and his rider's 7lb allowance could be the key to him building on that here. Closutton stablemate Lac Kivu is worthy of a market check following almost two years off the track, while Campeador flopped in handicap company last time, but a small-field affair may be right up his street. Last year's winner Dr Mikey is also respected at a course he thrives at, having hit the crossbar here last time.

ATR VERDICT: ASK HEATHER has had an unusual 2018/19 season, but nevertheless it is hard to fault her achievements during that period, winning three point-to-points and a handicap hurdle, with a fall in a Clonmel chase the only blot on her copybook. She was impressive when scoring in handicap company last month and has to be of real interest once again despite finding himself 10lb higher in the ratings now. Cappuccino Man was yet to be asked any questions when unseating four from home at Downpatrick last time and is interesting off the same rating here, while Gordon Elliott won this last year and Limerick third Monition may be the pick of his duo.

ATR VERDICT: Willie Mullins took this contest the last time it took place back in 2017 and his GENERAL COUNSEL may be the best place to start here with the Shantou gelding coming from a family that includes a Champion Bumper winner in Joe Cullen. Gordon Elliott saddles two to consider in Fancy Foundations and Hell On Earth, while Opposites Attract was second on his Rules debut over hurdles at Punchestown and is of interest here reverting to a bumper.
