TIMEFORM VIEW: KING VINCE was a close third when exiting 3 out at Market Rasen recently and, if none the worse for that tumble, he could be the answer to a race lacking strength in depth. Fenjack was just behind Kilmoganny over C&D last time, but he's had fewer chances than that rival and may well reverse the placings this time and emerge as the main danger.

TIMEFORM VIEW: ARCH MY BOY is a likeable sort who looked a natural when making a winning start to his hurdling career at Fakenham and he shouldn't have much issue maintaining his unbeaten record over obstacles in a race that won't take much winning. Takbeer and Glendun are the dangers, but they're reliant on the selection underperforming.
