ATR VERDICT: SPANISH MANE was well held on her debut for new connections at Chelmsford in December but her previous turf form gives the daughter of Havana Gold a big chance now. Mochalov has been kept busy on the all-weather over the winter and he is likely to be the main threat to the selection, ahead of Percy Toplis and Take It Down Under.

ATR VERDICT: QUIET PLACE's breeding suggests she should be a useful juvenile. The daughter of Kodiak is out of a mare who won the Listed Radley Stakes at Newbury as a two-year-old, and she cost 300,000gns as a yearling. Allez Sophia is another with an eyecatching pedigree being out of an unraced full-sister to the top-class performer and broodmare Halfway To Heaven. Endless Joy, who was a 90,000gns purchase, is a half-sister to smart sprinter Laugh A Minute, and Companion is another to note.

ATR VERDICT: KINGDOM OF DUBAI displayed promise in all three starts as a juvenile and the step up in trip could see him make a winning handicap debut on his first appearance on turf. Hypnos defeated Agent Basterfield by a head at Chelmsford earlier in the month and they should both go well once again, while Love So Deep is another who merits the utmost respect.

ATR VERDICT: In a competitive contest, marginal preference is for HAMLUL based on his third-placed finish in a strong race at Goodwood two starts ago. That prize was claimed by subsequent Meydan winner Escalator, with last week's Newmarket victor and Lincoln third Beringer in second. The son of Frankel disappointed on his final start of 2018 but can be given another chance. Nonios won at Chelmsford earlier in the month but has something to prove on turf, while Stealth Fighter remains open to improvement.

ATR VERDICT: KING OF COMEDY looked to have a very bright future when making a winning debut at Sandown last July, and that form has worked out very well. He was then off the track until November when a beaten favourite at Redcar, which is an obvious concern, but it is too soon to be writing him off and he can be given another chance. Cool Exhibit ran well under a penalty at Doncaster and should do so once again. Saeed bin Suroor unleashes a trio of newcomers in Land Of Legends, Military Tactic and Sendeed, with the latter arguably the most interesting being out of Irish and Yorkshire Oaks winner Petrushka. Dr Jekyll and Edaraat are other debutants to consider.

ATR VERDICT: The unbeaten AIRWAVES created a lasting impression when scoring twice on the all-weather during the winter, and could be one to keep on side on turf in the months to come. An opening mark of 75 doesn't look too overbearing and the well-related filly can land this before moving on to better things up in trip. Camachess has won her last three and could still be ahead of the assessor, while Solar Park must be respected on his turf debut having won twice on the all-weather this year.

ATR VERDICT: WIFF WAFF only found one too good on the all-weather just under a fortnight ago and can claim compensation here. The four-year-old is capable of holding his own back up in grade on turf, and this drop to 5f won't deter the C&D winner. Terri Rules hasn't been in good form recently but has won here twice, while Princess Keira would be interesting if fully revved up following a 166-day absence.
