7. Orange, black spots, black sleeves, orange spots, white cap

Timeform says:
1. Prolific winning pointer who maintained his unbeaten record under Rules when impressive winner of the Foxhunter Chase here in March. Will take all the beating.
2. Enhanced an excellent strike rate with a smooth success at Newbury in March and just bumped into one at Stratford subsequently. Should give another good account.
3. Formerly classy chaser who won twice in this discipline last season for Paul Nicholls and is 5-5 for current handler, namely a trio of points and a couple of hunters. Looks main threat to Hazel Hill.
4. Overcame an early scare to make a winning Rules/hunter debut at Stratford in June last year and has won all 3 starts in points since. This asks for more, but he's open to improvement in this sphere.
5. Temperamental sort who doesn't look the force of old on the evidence of his third at Chepstow in March. Tongue tie added to cheekpieces.
6. Multiple point winner but ran to only a fair level back under Rules when third at Hexham last month. Others preferred.
7. Showed improved form back in a hunter when close second at Catterick in March and has added to his impressive tally in points since, but likely to find at least a couple of these too strong.

Notes:

Forecast:

- Hazell Hill (1)
- Virak (3)
- Master Baker (2)
