ATR VERDICT: It's difficult to be too confident about any of these, but OUR NEST EGG might only need to reproduce the form of her latest four-length fourth at Clonmel to be successful. Amor Verdadero makes just her second appearance for Gordon Elliott and is likely to improve on her bumper fourth at Downpatrick last week, while Moyode Lady is no forlorn hope under Danny Mullins.

ATR VERDICT: CORAL BLUE ran out an easy C&D winner three weeks ago and a 9lb rise might not be enough to anchor him if arriving in the same mood. Bridge Native bounded into a clear lead at Cork last time and only gave way at the final hurdle. If opting similar tactics over this half a mile shorter trip then she ought to go close, while Callthebarman is respected having won off 5lb higher over fences when last sighted.

ATR VERDICT: CITY LIMITS boasts some smart form in both codes and, equipped with first-time cheekpieces, this represents a fantastic opportunity for him to open his account. Fiveallin posted two solid efforts in this sphere prior to struggling in a Punchestown Festival bumper and he can be given another chance, while Gotthenod and the first-time blinkered Cats For Cash are others to note.

ATR VERDICT: GALILEAN has got progressively better in three hurdle starts thus far and after impressing in maiden company at Fairyhouse last time, he is confidently selected to land the spoils. Judgement Day racked up four chase victories before struggling in Grade 1 company at Leopardstown. Switching back to hurdles, he rates the biggest threat to Joseph O'Brien's charge, while The Red Menace can be forgiven a rare poor run last time.

Top Tip: GALILEAN (1)

Watch out for: JUDGEMENT DAY (3)

ATR VERDICT: LORD SCHNAPPS showed improved form on his first outing over fences when third at Cork last month and he is entitled to take a step forward from that performance in what appears a winnable contest on paper. Eviscerating was a beaten favourite on his chase debut at Limerick but is capable of progressing, while Put The Kettle On placed in a handicap hurdle at the Punchestown Festival and represents a stable who do extremely well with their chasers.

ATR VERDICT: THECRAICISNINETY has placed in both starts since his impressive victory at Sligo in September and he should be capable of winning a race of this nature. Mill Quest may be a touch high in the ratings at the moment, having won well at Fairyhouse two starts ago, but she cannot be discounted, while Shanpallas and Getaway Kid are others to keep an eye on.

ATR VERDICT: SANTANA PLESSIS failed to fire when last seen at Navan in March but can be given another chance based on his previous form at Punchestown. Watch Guard displayed promise on his debut at Ballinrobe and he should be in the mix, while others to consider in a wide-open event are Blue Heather, Fumet D'Oudairies and Jessica's Boy.
