ATR VERDICT: POSTED hit the crossbar in a pair of novice races last summer and she was not disgraced in higher grades on her final couple of starts. Back in novice company, the daughter of Kingman could be very hard to beat. Red Armada is another who displayed plenty of promise as a juvenile and he is an obvious threat to the selection. Excellent Magic is a newcomer to note having cost 200,000gns and she is a half-sister to the Group performer Folkswood. Other debutants with eye-catching pedigrees are Cool Possibility and Majaalis.

ATR VERDICT: ICE AGE won this race 12 months ago off the same mark and he appeared to be coming back to form when finishing sixth in a competitive contest at Ripon recently. He needs to take another step forward but the six-yea-old still merits the utmost respect. The unbeaten Habub faces the toughest task of his short career to date but he should not be discounted, while Embour and Walk On Walter are others to consider.

ATR VERDICT: LIGHT ANGEL was very green on his debut over 5f at Doncaster a couple of weeks ago but he overcame that inexperience to only be beaten by a neck. The step up in trip should help this relation to Lope De Vega and he should be more streetwise. There are a whole host of well-bred newcomers in this field but the one that stands out is Sir Oliver, who cost 115,000gns as a yearling. The son of Dark Angel is a full-brother to the dual Nunthorpe winner Mecca's Angel as well as the Group 3 winner Markaz. Heaven Forfend is a full-brother to the black-type performer Seven Heavens, while the 180,000gns purchase Baadirr is another who merits a place on the shortlist.

ATR VERDICT: Brancaster ended his 2018 campaign with a duo of successes at Haydock in September and warrants plenty of respect in his search for a hat-trick. Carp Kid posted a career-best performance when staying on well to score at Chepstow a fortnight ago and is likely to be competitive despite a 5lb rise in the handicap. Preference, however, goes to HORATIO STAR, as he has the scope for improvement back at 1m4f on his handicap debut based on his second at Catterick last July.

ATR VERDICT: JUBILOSO made a pleasing start to her career when winning impressively at Chelmsford at the end of last month and the daughter of Shamardal, out of a half-sister to Frankel, appeals as the type to improve for both the experience and the step up in distance. After John and Penrhos both showed promise on their respective debuts and are capable of better, while newcomer Falsehood represents leading connections and warrants a market check.

ATR VERDICT: John Gosden holds a strong hand here and jockey bookings suggest Arabist is the pick of his two newcomers, slightly ahead of Logician. Saeed bin Suroor took this in 2017 and is another with two chances, saddling Najib and the interesting debutant Dubai Tradition, who is related to plenty of winners. However, preference is for Dubawi colt MILITARY MOVE. The three-year-old was well beaten at Salisbury in October on debut, but was popular in the betting and is expected to do better with time given his connections and breeding.

ATR VERDICT: John Gosden won this 12 months ago and could do so again with another runner representing Khalid Abdullah, GANTIER. The Frankel gelding has looked a useful prospect so far, finishing only once outside the first three home, and can build on his first handicap win last time off a 4lb higher mark. Ballylemon is open to improvement up in trip following his Wolverhampton second last month, while Prejudice is another to keep an eye on up in distance on his first outing for David Simcock. Sash and The Pink'n are others who make each-way appeal.

ATR VERDICT: BRISTOL MISSILE thrived following wind surgery when a comfortable winner over this trip at Haydock last month, and an 8lb rise might not be enough to stop him. Redgrave and Lacan both went close on the all-weather when last seen, with the latter making his first outing for Michael Bell, while Grapevine has made the podium on both outings this spring and a drop in trip with blinkers applied could help him.
