Posted has the best form, but she regressed on her last 2 starts as a juvenile, and has a bit to prove at present. Majaalis and Excellent Magic are both expensive, promising-looking newcomers.

One of the newcomers will have to be pretty special to beat him, though Heaven Forfend and Baadirr have plenty going for them on paper, and a market move for either should be taken into account.

TIMEFORM VIEW: While this is by no means a two-horse race, BUCKLAND BOY and Carp Kid could be the pair to concentrate on following career-best victories at Chepstow and Thirsk respectively. Preference is for the former, who has fewer miles on the clock than John Flint's charge. Encryption, the hat-trick seeking Brancaster and Follow Intello, whose best days are surely ahead of him, are others with claims.

Penrhos shaped well on his sole 2-y-o start and should do better in time.
