ATR VERDICT: Heritage took on some really smart fillies as a juvenile and has hinted in a couple of handicaps this term that her turn is surely near. BLOWN BY WIND was a much better two-year-old, though, and although he has been off the scene since struggling in the Superlative Stakes at the July Festival, a mark of 96 is attractive. Intuitive was disappointing at Newmarket but can't be written off just yet, while Rathbone is also considered following a confidence-boosting Pontefract win.
