ATR VERDICT: IVA GO fared better than Lady Quickstep when seventh in the Listed Marygate Fillies' Stakes at York's Dante meeting and she should only have to reproduce the level of that performance to regain the winning thread. Mecca's Hot Steps was beaten three and a half lengths into fourth by Tim Easterby's juvenile at Beverley, but is 4lb better off and has since finished a good second to a promising colt at Doncaster.

ATR VERDICT: Not the most competitive of contests so although LOST IN ALASKA hasn't shown too much promise at Newmarket and Yarmouth, he represents a trainer who does well with the runners he sends to this venue, and the application of a tongue-tie doesn't need to prompt too much of improvement for the son of Discreet Cat to break through. In Trutina is the logical threat if judged on her narrow debut defeat rather than her Ripon sixth. David O'Meara's Dandy Man filly Raksha might be the pick of the newcomers.

ATR VERDICT: JUNGLE ROOM hasn't been seen for the best part of 11 months, but he managed to land a Wolverhampton handicap for Kevin Ryan last year and Denis Quinn starts him back at a lowly level. If fitness is an issue, Tizwotitiz could be the one to capitalise because he hasn't been beaten far at all in handicap company on his last couple of starts. Al Mortajaz and You Little Beauty complete the shortlist.

Long Handicap: One One Seven 8 - 1

ATR VERDICT: Arishka may have failed in the hat-trick bid at Windsor but she didn't lose too much in defeat and it won't be a surprise at all if she bounces back. Northern Society showed the benefit of a winter break by shedding her maiden tag on her Musselburgh comeback but the one they all have to beat is WISE WORDS, who made light of her initial handicap mark with a decisive Newcastle success and there is no obvious reason why she won't reproduce that on turf.

Long Handicap: Leroy Leroy 7 - 13, Sands Chorus 7 - 12

ATR VERDICT: AL MUFFRIH was his own worst enemy when running too freely on his handicap debut at Newmarket, letting down favourite-backers who expected him to make a successful return. He retains plenty of potential, though, and William Haggas' decision to reach for a hood could have the desired effect. Epaulement went out on his shield in testing conditions at Chester and had Society Red back in fifth when making a victorious comeback at Ripon prior to that. Lunar Jet has already paid his way this season, while Commander Han could bounce back from his York no-show.

ATR VERDICT: MUSIC SEEKER has gradually worked his way into form under Cian MacRedmond this year and his progression was rewarded with a clear-cut Nottingham success in testing conditions. The going will be quicker here but Declan Carroll's gelding struck on fast ground at Wetherby last summer and is worth sticking with. Aiya made a satisfactory start to life with Tim Easterby and can build on that Musselburgh fourth, with Archie Perkins also respected now that he has a run under his belt.

ATR VERDICT: King Of Naples ended a lengthy drought at Wolverhampton in February and has been freshened up since, whereas MR COCO BEAN is turned out again just three days on from going close at Haydock. The David Barron-trained five-year-old was beaten just half a length on that occasion and providing he has recovered sufficiently, he can make amends. Splash Of Verve has been in fine fettle on the all-weather, with Midnight Warrior and Mr Carbonator others to consider.

ATR VERDICT: Faye McManoman gets the best out of Allux Boy and steered him to an emphatic triumph at Wolverhampton. He could be up to defying a 6lb rise but doesn't always put two runs together so is passed over in favour of MUQARRED, who was only third in a Southwell claimer last time out but is better treated on turf. Irish raider Machiavelli drops from 1m5f but is just as effective over this sort of trip.
