A TR VERDICT: It might pay to side with the lightly-raced NOBEL JOSHUA in what looks a tricky puzzle for punters to solve. Denis Hogan's charge certainly wasn't disgraced when shipped over to Wetherby for his handicap debut last month, finishing second-and-a-half-lengths third behind subsequent winner Moon King, and a 3lb rise shouldn't stop him from being competitive in this contest. The booking of Seamie Heffernan is also a positive and he makes slightly more appeal than Molly Kaye and Mastermind, who finished second and third respectively in a 1m6f event at Gowran 36 days ago. Bog War is another name to note.

Top Tip: NOBEL JOSHUA (13)
Watch out for: MOLLY KAYE (10)
