Timeform says:
- £45,000 purchase after getting off the mark in Irish points at fourth attempt in March. Likely to figure prominently on Rules debut.
- 40/1, 25 lengths sixth of 14 on Newton Abbot debut 29 days ago, not knocked about as she faded. May do better.
- Malinas mare. Dam (h78) maiden hurdler (stayed 2½m). Rare bumper runner for yard. Betting should help guide as to expectations.
- Out of a 19f hurdle winner and placed on the second of 2 starts in points this year. Yard 0-12 in bumpers in last 5 seasons.
- From a yard with a good bumper record but she needed experience and didn't offer much on last month's Hexham debut. Application of a tongue tie needs to help her to leave that effort well behind.
- Reluctant at start and always well behind on Doncaster debut in December. Likely more to come and the one to beat.
- Seemingly unfancied at 33/1 but shaped encouragingly when third of 14 on Newton Abbot debut 29 days ago. Open to improvement.

Notes:
- May do better.

TIMEFORM VIEW: There was plenty to like about BALLADAME'S debut second at Ffos Las and she can go one better with improvement on the cards. Malina Ocarina is another who should build on an encouraging first effort at Newton Abbot and heads the dangers along with Donald McCain's Irish point recruit Bannixtown Glory.
