TIMEFORM VIEW: The fact SPACE ACE was sent off at odds-on for her recent debut suggests she's well regarded by a yard which has plenty of good juveniles to compare her to and she's worth another chance with cheekpieces added now. Requiems Dream and Sir Havelock are newcomers from good stables and are also much respected.

TIMEFORM VIEW: TICKS THE BOXES was nicely clear of the rest when second at Pontefract last week and is taken to resume winning ways off the mark. Dream House is unexposed and is a potential improver now stepping back up to 6f, while Somewhere Secret got stopped in his run at Thirsk last time and is likely still in form. Dahik is well treated and needs keeping an eye on in the betting.

Salem Zayed made a solid start for Richard Fahey and will be a threat if building on that, while Euro Implosion won’t be too far away if recapturing the level of her Beverley reappearance.
