Long Handicap: Jeanette May 8 - 11, Anglesey Penny 8 - 11, Katie O'hara 8 - 11

ATR VERDICT: Valley Belle should run her usual honest race at the head of the weights but of more interest is THE BIG HOUSE, who has performed admirably in defeat on turf the last twice and is now partnered by 3lb apprentice Laura Coughlan. Comeonfeeltheforce is the sole course scorer in the field and is holding her form well at present, while Islay Mist and Meraki also warrant respect.

ATR VERDICT: TOPKAPI STAR represents a yard which has been in good form all year and this well-bred daughter of Golden Horn can make it second time lucky. A good third on debut at Doncaster 10 days ago, Roger Varian's horses usually improve a fair amount between their first and second starts and she can get the better of smartly-bred newcomers Queen Of The Sea and Love Powerful. Daily Times is expected to run better than when beaten by just under 14 lengths at Newmarket earlier in the month.

ATR VERDICT: Qaaddim makes plenty of appeal on breeding and is one to keep an eye on making his racecourse debut, but he'll be expected to improve a good bit for the experience gained on this occasion. With that in mind, RED SUN can show the benefit of having had a run, and a good one at that as he was the recipient of a silver medal at Bath earlier this month, form which was franked when the winner went on to finish a close-up fifth in the Windsor Castle Stakes at Royal Ascot. Zingaro Boy is another newcomer to note.

Long Handicap: Ainne 8 - 6

ATR VERDICT: Chloellie knows her way around here, boasting five wins from nine starts (two over course and distance), and she should be bang there at the business end despite carrying top weight. However, FANTASTIC FLYER also brings winning track-and-trip form to the table and wasn't disgraced at Chelmsford last time when attempting to round off the hat-trick. She can bounce back. Others to consider include the returning Wild Dancer and lightly raced Seraphim.

ATR VERDICT: Crystal Casque was beaten by under a length over this trip at Salisbury last time out and is expected to mount another bold bid off this 1lb higher mark. For win purposes, however, narrow preference is for handicap debutant LOCAL HISTORY, who opened her account in a 6f heat at Yarmouth last month and promises to be suited by this additional furlong. Regal Banner is interesting now back on the all-weather, having rattled the crossbar in a novice contest at Wolverhampton in December.

ATR VERDICT: LET RIP has been off the track since landing a 1m novice contest at Lingfield in December but an opening mark of 79 appears workable for Henry Candy's charge, who is expected to make a winning return to action. Just Brilliant raced freely when stepped up to 1m2f at Windsor last time and could settle better now back over a C&D he ran well over in April. The pick of the remainder may be Kingston Kurrajong, who went close off this mark at Brighton recently.

ATR VERDICT: Mainsail Atlantic was held off this mark at Yarmouth last time and will be hoping this extra furlong could be a source of immediate improvement. Narrow preference is instead for PETRASTAR, who didn't get the race run to suit in a tactical four-runner affair at Windsor last time but he could be seen to better effect if granted a stronger tempo to chase tonight. You're Hired is no forlorn hope for a place now eased in grade.

ATR VERDICT: GREENVIEW PARADISE arrives on a hat-trick after scoring over 1m6f at Southwell and Wolverhampton. Given the manner of those successes, this stiffer test may well suit Jeremy Scott's five-year-old, who is expected to turn in another bold showing. Deebaj ran well over hurdles when last sighted and is interesting now back on the level off a mark of 65, while Fitzwilly has dropped 4lb lower than when striking over track and trip in September and could also make his presence felt.
