ATR VERDICT: Leopardstown 1,000 Guineas trial winner Hamariyna made it two on the bounce when taking her first Group contest and, on pedigree, appears likely to be suited by the step up to 1m2f. However, she carries a 5lb penalty for that success and there is every chance the runner-up from Leopardstown, DEAN STREET DOLL, can reverse form. Joseph O'Brien's filly contested the 1,000 Guineas at the Curragh, staying on for fifth and shaping as though the extra couple of furlongs would play to her strengths. Search For A Song, a half-sister to Group 1 performer Free Eagle and from a black type family her trainer has done well with over the years, made a pleasing start to her career at Fairyhouse and warrants plenty of respect, while Goddess could take a big step forward from her return performance at Navan earlier this month.

Top Tip: DEAN STREET DOLL (4)
Watch out for: HAMARIYNA (1)
