ATR VERDICT: REMEMBER THE DAYS has made up into a useful dual-purpose performer and Jedd O'Keeffe's five-year-old is backed to build on his recent Ripon second to play a leading part off a 1lb lower mark. Zihaam was slightly disappointing over this trip when fancied to run well at Beverley last time but the course winner is respected off a fair rating, while Sempre Presto ran well at long odds in a competitive York handicap last month and could have more to come in what looks an easier contest.

ATR VERDICT: AMBER STAR has shown snippets of ability on her two outings so far and it would be no surprise if David O'Meara's well-bred Lope De Vega filly takes a leap forward here to play a leading part having performed respectably in a useful Thirsk contest last time. Highcastle enjoyed the drop in trip when third at Chester on his first start for Lisa Williamson and may have more to come for his new handler, while Key Choice and Taaldara could fight it out for the final podium spot.

ATR VERDICT: ALABAMA WHITMAN could prove hard to beat following her Albany Stakes fourth at Royal Ascot and Richard Spencer's youngster could thrive on her first try at seven furlongs in what will be a much easier contest. Archie Watson's Secret Passion cost 72,000gns and is a half-sister to Rabiosa Fiore, who was placed in two Listed contests in Italy, while Mark Johnston's Golden Horn filly Tulip Fields is closely related to some top performers.

ATR VERDICT: OLIVIA R has been much improved the last twice and can build on her recent Redcar second off a 1lb lower mark having kept on well at the finish on that occasion. Summer Bride should be much more comfortable back down at seven furlongs and is respected, while Ifton's Haydock third looks a strong piece of form and he has a win in him on fast ground providing all the pieces fall into place.

ATR VERDICT: ONLY SPOOFING was back to his best when striking at Beverley last weekend and could still have a bit in hand despite a 5lb penalty. Jedd O'Keeffe's charge beat some useful yardsticks there and could have too much pace for the hat-trick seeking Jack The Truth. Spirit Of Wedza is in good form and looks sure to be ridden prominently, while Followthesteps is usually thereabouts in such contests and also warrants a second glance.

ATR VERDICT: CAUSTIC LOVE makes plenty of appeal having won her last two at this venue and could claim a hat-trick for Keith Dalgleish. The three-year-old has a further 6lb rise to deal with, but has shown that she handles varying ground conditions and won't be deterred by this drop back in distance. Lady Calcaria scored on heavy ground at this venue off 6lb lower in May, while Kindly needs a market check on stable debut for Mick Easterby following a 258-day absence.

ATR VERDICT: NINJAGO bounced back to form when winning at Thirsk two starts ago and he proved that was not a fluke by filling second place at Hamilton last time out. A reproduction of either of those efforts should be good enough to win this contest. Picks Pinta has to be respected having been narrowly beaten last time out, while Searanger and Ghost Buy complete the shortlist.

ATR VERDICT: QUEEN OF KALAHARI travelled stylishly before launching her winning challenge at Hamilton four weeks ago and could follow up off just 2lb higher for Les Eyre. Second on three consecutive occasions before that overdue success, it would be a surprise if there wasn't more to come from the four-year-old. The Bull looked an unlucky loser when finding one too good in Scotland last time and is respected, while recent C&D scorer Tarnhelm is another who could be involved given that she hasn't been penalised for that effort.

Top Tip: QUEEN OF KALAHARI (8)
