ATR VERDICT: Aplomb benefited from the return to 6f at Nottingham on his latest start and a 5lb rise might underestimate the authority of his success. That said, all of his runs so far have come on ground softer than he encounters on this occasion so he has to prove his versatility on this surface. Several of these ran in a good handicap at York last month with Magical Wish (third), Dazzling Dan (sixth), RATHBONE (eighth) and Blown By Wind (ninth) all reopposing, but Kevin Ryan's gelding is taken to bounce back. Gelded last autumn, he won two on the bounce before his effort on the Knavesmire on a softer surface so the return to faster ground is expected to bring about further progression. Others to consider include Top Breeze, a winner at the Craven meeting who steps back up to 6f, the hat-trick seeking Moss Gill and Street Parade.

Top Tip: RATHBONE (6)
