ATR VERDICT: THUNDEROUS won impressively on his debut at Doncaster late last month and the son of Night Of Thunder is hard to oppose, despite having to carry a 7lb penalty for that victory. Arthur's Court has displayed promise in both previous starts and he is an obvious threat to the selection, and similar comments apply to Saint Of Katowice.

Top Tip: THUNDEROUS (1)
Watch out for: ARTHUR'S COURT (3)

ATR VERDICT: FIRST DANCE was not all that far away in a stronger race than this at York nine days ago and the daughter of Cape Cross appears to be the one to beat based upon that evidence. Mina Vagante makes her handicap debut, having shown some promise in novice company, and an opening mark of 67 seems fair. Others to consider are Tom's Anna and Farhh Away.

Top Tip: FIRST DANCE (2)

ATR VERDICT: ONE TO GO has been knocking hard on the door of late, with two second-placed finishes in recent weeks, and this appears to be an ideal opportunity for the gelding to get off the mark. Straight Ash is another whose most recent form offers plenty of encouragement for his chances, while Greengage is the pick of the remainder.

ATR VERDICT: KOLOSSUS bumped into a useful rival when filling second place over 6f at Ayr on Monday and he has to be given the utmost respect off the same mark. Ghathanfar put in a career best on his handicap debut last time out and the lightly-raced gelding may have more to offer. Kind Review and Mac Ailey complete the shortlist.

ATR VERDICT: FIRST FLIGHT has the best recent form on offer having finished third in a better race at Newcastle last month, and looks poised to strike for Brian Ellison. The eight-year-old is now 4lb below his last winning mark, and has been found a suitable opening to claim an overdue success. Slaithwaite ran a stinker at Beverley earlier in the week but was previously in good form, while Anif is capable but needs things to drop right back up in trip.

ATR VERDICT: Pipers Note is always respected at this level but generally saves his best for Ripon, while East Street Revue has dropped to a tempting mark and was third at Beverley behind a horse who has since followed up. Slight preference is for MUSCIKA, who wasn't disgraced in a better event at Yarmouth earlier this month. His record is good in class 3 races and it will be a surprise if he isn't competitive.

Top Tip: MUSCIKA (1)

Watch out for: EAST STREET REVUE (10)

ATR VERDICT: NEVER BE ENOUGH wasn't disgraced in a Listed event at Pontefract and can regain the winning thread back at a more realistic level. Keith Dalglish's charge has plenty of weight to carry, but has Queen Penn held based on their Hamilton clash last month. Warning Fire has been successful in two of her last three and is respected for some in-form connections, while Arletta Star could prove best of the remainder.

Top Tip: NEVER BE ENOUGH (1)

ATR VERDICT: OI THE CLUBB OI'S had to work hard to land the spoils at Nottingham two starts ago and though things did not go to plan at Sandown subsequently, he may be able to dominate from the front in this smaller field, as he did at Colwick Park. C&D scorer Nearly There can remain competitive despite a 4lb rise, while the consistent Donnachies Girl should give the form of this contest a solid outlook.
