ATR VERDICT: FEELING THE LOVE returned to form when second at Tramore in this sphere last month and shaped there as though she would be suited by a slightly stiffer test of stamina. Jessica Harrington's string have been in fine form so far this summer and the six-year-old can take this before proving a force in handicaps. Make My Heart Fly shaped well when second at Bellewstown 15 days ago and could do better now chasing, while Shimmer And Shine wasn't disgraced on her chasing debut at Roscommon 12 days ago.

ATR VERDICT: JAN MAAT showed improvement from his modest chasing debut at Ballinrobe when second at Wexford 32 days ago and could take advantage of this fair opening. The six-year-old was deemed good enough to run in Grade 2 company over hurdles, and could be worth following over these larger obstacles. Djingle made a promising debut on Irish soil when third at Wexford last month, while Everlastingpromise was a career-best third at Kilbeggan 34 days ago and is fancied to build on that here.

ATR VERDICT: DON'T LET GO was pulled up on her seasonal reappearance in April, but she has looked in smart form since, finishing third and first, and could win again for JP McManus and Conor O'Dwyer. The seven-year-old has only been raised 5lb for her Kilbeggan victory seven weeks ago, and looks ideally suited by tight tracks such as this. Ocean Glandore has won two of his last three and looks better than ever at the age of 10, while Ballybrowney Jack is also noted.

ATR VERDICT: COOLDINE BOG was looking dangerous before tumbling at Wexford last month, and could prove tough to stop here if that fall hasn't had a psychological impact. He had previously looked a natural when scoring on debut in this sphere a few weeks previously, and can pick up where he left off there. Put The Kettle On is a capable hurdler/chaser and warrants a second look, while Eoline Jolie may finally fulfil her early potential after striking at Roscommon 12 days ago.

ATR VERDICT: This isn't a great race and a tentative vote goes the way of 11-year-old INVINCIBLE DON. A neck second at Killarney earlier this week, the veteran is unsurprisingly turned out quickly as he looks to make amends for that cruel defeat. Duhallo Paddy looked in good form earlier in the year and won't mind this drop in trip, while Fairymount Boy and Hard Bought can also make their respective presences felt.

ATR VERDICT: KILLINEY COURT won impressively over hurdles at Wexford last month and the three-time chase winner has to be given the utmost respect today back over the larger obstacles, off what appears to be a workable mark. Reach Up is another recent winner who has to be noted in a moderate contest, while Mrs Lovett and Deans Road complete the shortlist.

ATR VERDICT: TORQUAY disappointed last time out at Roscommon but she can be given another chance today based upon her narrow defeat at Downpatrick two starts ago. Banjo was not far behind the high-class Farclas last time out and he is an obvious threat to the selection. Others who merit consideration in an open event are Touch Base, Carrigready and Churchtown Glen.
