TIMEFORM VIEW: EXCELLED ran as well as she ever has when runner-up at Wolverhampton last month and looks capable of going one better kept to this trip. Visionara's opening mark appears a fair one, so she's another to consider, as is Red Bravo, who has eased further in the weights.

TIMEFORM VIEW: TELL ME ALL confirmed his debut promise when running out a comfortable winner at Beverley 16 days ago and he very much appeals as the type to progress with racing judging by his pedigree. Harrison Point clearly knew his job when runner-up on his introduction at Kempton last week, but he should still improve. Ben Lilly is the pick of the newcomers before market clues.

TIMEFORM VIEW: Having opened his account in emphatic fashion at Redcar recently, ANYONECANHAVEITALL is likely to take some stopping turned out quickly under a penalty here, providing he takes to this surface. Fellow 3-y-o Mon Frere, who also got off the mark recently at Chelmsford where he proved too strong for next-time-out winner Trouble Shooter, is the clear main danger. Ban Shoof is best of the rest.

TIMEFORM VIEW: GOLD FLASH was unable to land a blow at Wolverhampton a fortnight ago (held up in a steadily-run race) but his late gains that day suggest he's still in reasonable nick and he is taken to prove that point from 2 lb lower. Sea Shack may well bag some further place money returned to 1m, while Pot Luck is more interesting than most back from a break.
