b f Charm Spirit - Bryanstown

TIMEFORM VIEW: THE CORPORAL left previous efforts for this yard well behind when opening his account over C&D last month, form which was boosted when the runner-up went one better next time. A 5 lb rise may not be enough to anchor him, for all that this is a stronger race. Alhaazm was below par last time, but he's a big player judged on his handicap debut second at Newbury in May. Windsor Cross also has claims.

TIMEFORM VIEW: PETITE MALLE hasn't pulled up any trees in a maiden and couple of minor events, but improvement is on the cards now that she makes the move into handicap company off a lowly opening mark. James Fanshawe's charge gets the nod ahead of recent Lingfield winner Break of Day, who will be a big threat under a penalty if she again gets a strong pace to aim. Reconnaissance also enters calculations.

TIMEFORM VIEW: GLOBAL ACCLAMATION has been knocking on the door of late and, just 1 lb higher than when scoring on the all-weather earlier this year, he could be the answer to this open-looking handicap. Master Poet was narrowly denied at Lingfield recently and should again be in the mix if proving equally effective back on faster ground. Parknacilla and Little Miss Kodi are others to consider.
