ATR VERDICT: SIMBA SAMBA landed a gamble over C&D five days ago and could defy a 6lb penalty for Philip McBride. Dylan Hogan's claim will help matters in that respect and the three-year-old is open to plenty of improvement given his unexposed profile. Swell Song outran 16-1 odds to finish third here earlier this month and has dropped to a tempting mark, while Monarch Maid was behind the selection here last week and could go close once more.

Top Tip: SIMBA SAMBA (4)

Watch out for: SWELL SONG (8)

ATR VERDICT: AMBER ISLAND's dam was a Listed winner and she knew her job to a certain extent when finishing third on debut at Newmarket 17 days ago. She was probably at the wrong side of the track last time and could take this granted more luck. Pocket Square is a half-sister to Sand Share, who placed in Group 2 company as a two-year-old, while fellow newcomer Dubai Life is also noted given her connections.

Top Tip: AMBER ISLAND (1)

ATR VERDICT: KNOWING goes about his business in a likeable manner and shaped as though there might be more to come when scoring at Yarmouth three weeks ago. He was going away at the finish there, and it wouldn't be a surprise if the three-year-old was suited by this slight step up in distance. Albanita was beaten at short odds when third at Lingfield 10 days ago but can probably be forgiven that defeat, while Fraser Island could do better now wearing first-time blinkers.

ATR VERDICT: PERCY TOPLIS stayed on well here over 1m1f earlier in the month and that performance suggested the step back up in trip could see him gain his second course success. Lily Ash ran with credit on her return at Lingfield 17 days ago and she is entitled to enter the reckoning once again, while the booking of Jason Watson could see improvement from Apache Blaze.

ATR VERDICT: SKY PATROL displayed promise as a juvenile, including on a couple of course appearances, and this appeals as an ideal opportunity for him to gain his first victory on his first start since being gelded. Society Prince returns from 661 days off the track but had run well on a couple of outings as a juvenile and could enter the equation along with newcomer Capla Berry, who has the services of Silvestre De Sousa.

ATR VERDICT: ROMAN SPINNER was touched off by a head when second over track and trip last time and is expected to mount a bold bid off the same mark. Keepup Kevin was denied a hat-trick at Leicester last month but remains only 4lb higher than when scoring at Beverley in June so he could feasibly bounce back. The pick of the remainder may be Sir Titan, who took a step in right direction when fourth over 7f at HQ last time.

Long Handicap: Seaquinn 8 - 11, Top Offer 8 - 11, Paco Dawn 8 - 11, General Patton 8 - 11, Silvington 8 - 11

ATR VERDICT: Takiah is fitted with first-time blinkers after finishing a creditable third over 1m1f here earlier in the month and is expected to finish on the premises, though narrow preference is instead for AGENT OF FORTUNE, a course winner who hinted her turn was approaching again when keeping on into third over track and trip three weeks ago. Hi Ho Silver attracted support at Wolverhampton last time and disappointed, though he makes more appeal on his C&D second off 2lb higher in May.

Top Tip: AGENT OF FORTUNE (3)

Watch out for: TAKIAH (10)
