TIMEFORM VIEW: FESTIVE STAR was only ½-length behind Amber Island when the pair were a promising fourth and third respectively in a minor event at Newmarket on debut, and she may be able to turn the tables having looked more in need of the experience that day. Dubai Life and Pocket Square are interesting newcomers and a market move for either should be respected.

TIMEFORM VIEW: It's taken a while to get SKY PATROL back to the track but he has the best form and is the percentage call. Society Prince is returning from an even longer absence but he'd rate a threat if the market suggests he's primed for a bold bid. Newcomer Capla Berry would also very much enter the reckoning if the betting speaks in her favour.
