TIMEFORM VIEW: LUNA WISH has found only one too good on both her handicap starts to date, so she's the percentage call to go one better. Timon made more impact than previously at Kempton last time and could be the one to chase the selection home.

TIMEFORM VIEW: CALCULATION is improving fast and bred to go on doing so for a while yet, so he should be able to account for these more exposed older horses in receipt of weight-for-age. Emenem did well to gain a share of the spoils from a poor position at Newbury last time, so he's the clear danger ahead of Matchmaking.

TIMEFORM VIEW: INFUSE got back on track when runner-up on her handicap debut at Yarmouth last month and may be the answer to a tricky fillies' novice. Strelka should build on a promising debut at Windsor and is feared most, along with Stratification, who remains with potential after failing to meet expectations when last seen at Salisbury in May.
