ATR VERDICT: Baby Zeus showed plenty of tenacity to land the spoils over a similar trip here on debut and Ger Lyons' Footstepsinthesand gelding has to be respected. However, preference is for RAVEN'S CRY, who opened her account when dropping back to seven furlongs at Galway and the 58,000-euro buy is well worth another go over a mile. Joseph O'Brien's pair of Naas third Zoom Zoom Babe and debutant Strawberry Picker are others to note.

ATR VERDICT: Sligo winner In From The Cold wasn't beaten far when looking to follow up at the Curragh last week and it is interesting he now goes up in trip off the same mark. However, SEA THE DAWN impressed in maiden company in June and the six-length winner makes most appeal reappearing in this handicap. Kingslayer and Borelli are other handicap debutants to watch out for.

ATR VERDICT: The experienced Tony The Gent landed his fifth career victory at Leopardstown last week and makes plenty of appeal looking to follow up on his first outing for new handler Denis Hogan. However, preference is for NATIONAL GUARD, who was a winner over this distance at Dundalk in March and it seems to that the sprinting experiment with him has been boycotted for the time being. Come September has joined Gavin Cromwell since her victory on debut and is considered, with Ideal Pal and Aussie Valentine other respected players.

ATR VERDICT: BOWERMAN is the exact delicate type that trainer Ado McGuinness does well with and the five-year-old could build on his promising stable debut now switched to a mile. Second over 7f at Naas 31 days ago, he doesn't have many miles on the clock for his age and has been located a nice opening. Fire Fly hasn't been disgraced in Group 3 company this season and perhaps a first-time hood could bring about some improvement, while Shelir has a nice pedigree and cannot be dismissed.

ATR VERDICT: AIRGEAD was given a perfect ride by Leigh Roche to strike at Leopardstown 16 days ago and there is no reason why he can't win at this lowly level once more. The three-year-old might have been let in lightly off just 6lb higher and could prove too strong for Solomons Seal, who returned to form when fifth of 14 at Tipperary a fortnight ago. All The Mollies only found one too good at Gowran Park in May and a break might have done her good.

ATR VERDICT: The step back up in trip, and the return to a more conventional track, could see BUILDING BRIDGES return to winning ways. The only time he has raced beyond 1m4f came when winning his maiden at Navan in June and Jessica Harrington's colt can be forgiven his Galway performance. Give Battle has been in fine fettle over timber and he has to enter calculations, along with Danehill Quest, who has finished second the last twice.

ATR VERDICT: STRATUM won't need to run anywhere near his best on his return to the level to see him bounce back to winning ways. Sent off favourite for the Northumberland Plate at Newcastle in late June, Willie Mullins' gelding has since tackled the Galway Hurdle, where he finished midfield, and this appeals as a solid confidence-booster before targeting bigger races later in the year. Noble Expression finished fourth in a Listed race at Down Royal last time and warrants a place on the shortlist, along with Rough Terrain, a winner on his racecourse bow in a Worcester bumper.

Top Tip: STRATUM (2)
