ATR VERDICT: Bollin Joan won this last year off 6lb lower and merits consideration under Emily Easterby once more, while Top Notch Tonto has dropped to a tempting mark and represents a trainer who landed this prize 10 years ago. Thorntoun Care isn't usually disgraced in this company, but REGAL DIRECTOR is interesting on stable debut for Archie Watson. Third behind a now-rated 87 performer at Newcastle in May, he could be fairly treated off 75 and might take some stopping.

ATR VERDICT: Wade's Magic caught the eye on debut at Beverley and can be forgiven a modest effort not long after at the same venue, with this step up in trip likely to help Tim Easterby's charge reach his potential. TYLER DURDEN finished third at Yarmouth on his first career outing 16 days ago and holds entries in a couple of valuable events later in the year, including the Two Year Old Trophy here. Ventura Express can prove best of the newcomers.

ATR VERDICT: NIRODHA showed a nice attitude to get the job done at the second time of asking at Yarmouth four weeks ago and she could defy a penalty for Amy Murphy. The two-year-old had previously finished a short-head second at Wolverhampton and connections are clearly keen to keep their charge on the go while the iron is hot. Katniss Everdeen showed plenty of promise when third on debut at Salisbury 10 days ago, while Bertie's Princess is another to consider.

ATR VERDICT: A return to this venue could do the trick for ANYONECANHAVEITALL, who was an impressive winner over course and distance earlier this month and wasn't disgraced five days later when third at Lingfield. Mark Johnston's Nathaniel gelding has enjoyed the step up to staying trips this year and rates as the one to beat here. An extra two furlongs and a first-time visor may be the key for Selino, who has been on the premises on all four outings so far including his handicap debut at Kempton last time. Agravain has a fine course record and must enter calculations, while Well Funded has gone close twice since winning at Doncaster in June and can't be ignored.

ATR VERDICT: LORD OF THE ROCK has enjoyed the return to the Flat, winning on soft ground at Haydock before just losing out at Thirsk earlier this month on his first outing following a 98-day break. The seven-year-old will appreciate the forecast cut in the ground and could build on that encouraging reappearance off the same mark. Star Shield was fifth in that aforementioned Thirsk contest and has won twice over this distance already this season, while Queen's Sargent and triple course winner Give It Some Teddy were both runner's up last time and have to be respected.

ATR VERDICT: DONNELLY'S RAINBOW has thrived over this distance of late, winning two of his last three starts, and won't mind conditions as he looks for further glory off a 4lb higher mark. Course-and-distance winner Beverley Bullet was sent off joint-favourite last time and is interesting back down in trip in a first-time visor, while Valley of Fire makes appeal having only been beaten a head at Doncaster last week. The consistent pair Yes You and Poet's Pride are others who could get involved.

ATR VERDICT: TICKS THE BOXES has been reborn since joining Brian Ellison, winning twice and hitting the frame with regularity. He has the chance to strike again off the same mark as when third at Newcastle last time. Blinkers combined with Ger O'Neill's claim could help Dahik build on his encouraging Yarmouth performance earlier this week, while Grimsdyke was second on soft ground at Thirsk when looking to follow up his course and distance victory from last month and rates a leading player once again.
