ATR VERDICT: Roger Varian has won two of the last four renewals of this contest and saddles an exciting individual in the shape of FARZEEN. The daughter of Farhh has improved leaps and bounds with each career start and arrives on the back of a comfortable victory under a penalty at Kempton last month. That performance suggested she was worth her place at this level and, for a stable with a fine record on Town Moor, gets the vote over Di Fede, who was fourth in a Group 3 at Goodwood on her latest start, and Angel's Hideaway, who is likely to be suited by a more conventional track.

Top Tip: FARZEEN (10)

Watch out for: DI FEDE (3)

6 (1)		189520	THEGLASGOWWARRIOR 14 b g Sir Percy - Sweet Cando	5 9 - 2	D Tudhope J S Goldie	90

ATR VERDICT: SAROOG is unbeaten in four starts over 1m6f, which includes his past couple of outings at Ascot and Newmarket. The son of Nathaniel went up 5lb for his most recent display and could have the scope for further progression. Theglasgowwarrior finished a neck third in this contest 12 months ago and is respected back on a sounder surface compared to Hamilton last time, while Charles Kingsley is likely to run his usual consistent race having placed in the Old Borough Cup at Haydock on Saturday.

Top Tip: SAROOG (1)

6 (1)		121	SNEAKY GETAWAY (IRE) 27 b g Getaway - Aguida	6 9 - 5	J P Spencer Emmet Mullins	101

ATR VERDICT: It is difficult to oppose STRADIVARIUS once again with the star stayer having swept all before him this season, landing the Wetherbys bonus for the second year in a row at York last month. Despite having to give his old rival Dee Ex Bee an extra 2lb on this occasion, the five-year-old has proven to be tactically versatile against Mark Johnston's stayer and those pair are likely to be a cut above the remainder. Cleonte (11th) finished behind Barsanti (fifth) in the Ebor at York when they last met, but the step back up in trip will benefit Andrew Balding's gelding being a Queen Alexandra winner over 2m5f at Royal Ascot and he could prove best of the rest.

Top Tip: STRADIVARIUS (1)

8 (8)		19	SEIZE THE TIME (IRE) 28 D ch f Siyouni - Teeba	2 8 - 12	R L Moore K R Burke	-

ATR VERDICT: Royal Ascot Norfolk hero A'ali has the best overall form in the book, though he was found out in Group 1 company in France last month and is unraced on ground quicker than good to soft at this early stage of his career. Wheels On Fire is an intriguing recruit to the yard of Aidan Fogarty and made some smooth headway when fifth in the Molecomb at Goodwood in July, but ALLIGATOR ALLEY was seriously impressive at York three weeks ago and could take some stopping. That effort can be upgraded given that he missed the break and it is well worth noting that the third from that event has since landed a Group 3 at Kempton.

Top Tip: ALLIGATOR ALLEY (2)

Watch out for: A'ALI (1)

ATR VERDICT: VISINARI was well held by Pinatubo in the Vintage Stakes at Goodwood last time out but his previous narrow defeat in the July Stakes suggests that he should be capable of winning a race of this nature. Molatham was only beaten a neck on his debut by the exciting Mums Tipple and he made amends by winning the Convivial at York last month. Roger Varian's colt has a bright future and he should not be underestimated. Wichita made a winning debut at the Curragh three weeks ago and he is another to note.

6 (4)		5	TALAP 7 b c Kingman - Tamarind	2 9 - 5	Andrea Atzeni R Varian	-

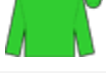

ATR VERDICT: MAORI KNIGHT caught the eye when overcoming greenness to stay on into third on his debut at Newbury in July. That form has been boosted with the second winning next time out and the son of Camelot should be a lot sharper this afternoon. Arabian Moon has made the frame in both previous starts and he is an obvious threat to the selection, while Talap should also improve for his recent debut effort. Raaeb is closely related to plenty of winners and he merits a market inspection on his racecourse debut.

ATR VERDICT: FLAVIUS TITUS ran too badly for it to be true at Goodwood in the ultra-competitive Stewards' Cup at Goodwood six weeks ago and could bounce back at a track where his connections have had plenty of success in the past. The four-year-old previously looked progressive when scoring twice at Newmarket on fast ground and would prove tough to stop if returning to that sort of form. Citron Major has proved a revelation this season and wasn't disgraced when third in the Great St Wilfrid at Ripon behind a winner who has since scored again twice, while Enjazaat drops in class and could be good enough for third.

ATR VERDICT: BENADALID swooped from out wide to return to winning ways in a good race at Ripon last month and could defy a 3lb rise under Daniel Tudhope. The four-year-old's hold-up style is perfectly suited to this track, as proven when he was successful over C&D in July, and he has been located a nice opening once more. Light Up Our Stars ran a blinder after a break to finish third at Salisbury last week, while Storting and Sandret add depth to a competitive affair.

Top Tip: BENADALID (2)

Watch out for: LIGHT UP OUR STARS (4)
