ATR VERDICT: John Quinn's Exceed and Excel filly Mia Diva looked promising earlier in her career and this could prove to be calmer waters for the 70,000 pounds buy. However, AIRBRUSH was beaten less than a length when third over course and distance late last month and Richard Hannon's youngster could better that effort off the same mark. Track-and-trip winner Exclusive was fifth in that contest and is respected, while Allez Sophia has appeared handy in her outings so far.

Top Tip: MIA DIVA (1)

Watch out for: AIRBRUSH (3)

ATR VERDICT: NEW ARRANGEMENT opened his account at the second attempt when sent off a short-priced favourite at Hamilton in July. The lightly-raced New Approach gelding had to work hard for his victory there but will have learnt plenty in the process and could be even better this time. Olaf was a surprise 50/1 winner at Lingfield and is entitled to be much more popular here, while the reappearing Summer Skies is respected in first-time cheekpieces.

Top Tip: NEW ARRANGEMENT (1)

ATR VERDICT: PRINCESS WAY often saves her best for this venue and the track specialist was on the scoresheet over course and distance once again last time. She saw out the 10 furlongs well then and could thrive again following a 6lb rise. Albanita drops back in trip following some respectable efforts and is tried in first-time blinkers, while Orange Suit improved for wind surgery to occupy the runner-up berth at Leicester.

ATR VERDICT: CATHEADANS FURY was touched off by a head over track and trip last time and has a strong chance off 1lb higher. Big Lachie is back on the same mark he won off over 5f here in June and is feared most, though there could also be big runs on the cards from Devils Roc and Awsaaf, who landed a hat-trick when scoring off 4lb lower over 5f here last month.

Top Tip: CATHEADANS FURY (12)

ATR VERDICT: CHARLIE D was denied a hat-trick over the extended 2m at Wolverhampton last time but the switch back to turf could spark an immediate return to form. Gemini is sporting a first-time visor after landing a claimer at Catterick and is expected to finish on the premises. The main danger, however, may be course winner Hope Is High, who steps up in trip after striking over the extended 1m3f here last time.

Top Tip: CHARLIE D (1)

ATR VERDICT: DUKE OF DUNABAR took a step forward on his first outing after wind surgery when third at Chelmsford at the end of last month and the son of Dunaden could have more to offer on this occasion. About Glory and Red Gunner were only separated by a short head when the former scored over C&D 11 days ago and the pair are likely to be in the mix once again.

ATR VERDICT: ARCTIC SEA returned to form when runner-up at Chepstow earlier in the month and the five-year-old shaped on that occasion as though the step up to 1m4f would pose no problems. Carp Kid has been a model of consistency on his most recent outings and can enter calculations along with Simbirsk, who won at the track in May and is back on the same mark.

Top Tip: ARCTIC SEA (2)
