ATR VERDICT: KHUZAAM was considered good enough for a crack at Listed company at Newmarket in May when not running to the level of form achieved in his two juvenile outings. The son of Kitten's Joy has been given plenty of time, and a wind operation, to recover from those exertions and an opening mark of 89 looks workable. Jim Crowley has passed the selection over for Montatham, who has won his last two starts in novice company, but the form of the William Haggas stable has to be a concern, so the main dangers are Canal Rocks and Model Guest.

Top Tip: KHUZAAM (4)

Watch out for: CANAL ROCKS (7)
