ATR VERDICT: It is of real interest that Oisin Murphy takes over aboard Mark Johnston's Ayr winner GOBI SUNSET, with the Oasis Dream colt making plenty of appeal looking to make it back-to-back victories following a few months off on his first run in this sphere. Port Winston got off the mark in a Sandown nursery last time and now steps up in trip off a 3lb higher mark, while Modern British Art ran better than the bare result may suggest off the same figure at Doncaster last week and isn't ruled out with a talented apprentice aboard.

ATR VERDICT: Godolphin are mob-handed here and the pick of their trio could well be URSA MINOR, who has twice made the podium over seven furlongs and John Gosden's youngster could now be ready for the challenge of a mile. Live Your Dream was only beaten a neck on debut at Chelmsford, while State Crown is closely related to Listed winner Key To Victory. Carlos Felix is yet another big-money buy from owner Darren Yates and merits respect on his introduction, with Count Of Amazonia and Hlaitan both shaping nicely on their first outings at Ascot and hard to ignore.

ATR VERDICT: The drop in trip to six furlongs could be the key to THREAD OF SILVER leaving her disappointing Newmarket performance last month behind her and returning to the form of her debut, which saw the Godolphin youngster beaten just a head at the same venue. Call Me Katie has shaped nicely on both outings so far and is respected for a top yard, while Esprit Rose was third on debut at Haydock and there could be lots more to come from the 200,000 guineas buy.

Long Handicap: Great Hall 8 - 8

ATR VERDICT: PAST MASTER, who had been running with credit without getting on the scoresheet, thrived when trying this distance for the first time at Goodwood and has the chance to follow up that victory off just a 4lb higher mark. Four-time course winner Protected Guest was only a neck away from making it back-to-back wins at Ascot and is of real interest now stepped up in distance. Eynhallow offered plenty of encouragement when sixth at York last month and could be set for a leading role.

ATR VERDICT: POTTERS LADY JANE stayed on well when scoring over course and distance last month and she has the chance to follow up off just a 2lb higher rating. Sir Michael Stoute's filly Honfleur is interesting on her handicap debut with Ryan Moore taking over the reins, while fellow three-year-old Baba Ghanouj has been running respectably in handicaps this summer and can't be ignored. Bath winner Miss Latin and Lightning Dance, who was a short head away from back-to-back victories at Goodwood last time, are others sure to be popular.

ATR VERDICT: Cardano has been in top form this summer, winning four times, and is sure to be popular off a mark just 3lb higher than when successful at Newmarket last time. The Oasis Dream gelding has the added bonus of Ryan Moore's help in the saddle, but preference is for John Gosden's HARROVIAN, who has shaped nicely since joining the handicap ranks and looks sure to go close with blinkers replacing a visor. Dual track-and-trip winner The Corporal is left out of calculations at your peril.

ATR VERDICT: Course-and-distance winner YIMOU completed the hat-trick at Windsor when last seen and Dean Ivory's four-year-old is hard to oppose as he looks to extend his winning run. Tinto has gone ever so close the last twice and is likely to be thereabouts at the finish again, while Ice Age and Kinks are others to catch the eye in defeat on their most recent outings and compete off untouched ratings.
