ATR VERDICT: THORNABY PRINCESS remains in good form having finished first, third and second at Musselburgh in recent weeks, and can continue on the upward trajectory here for Jason Ward. The eight-year-old has been thriving with her racing and appeals more than Katherine Place, who has found just one too good the last twice. Lord Of The Glen hasn't been disgraced on his last couple of appearances and could be one for those seeking a little more value.
Top Tip: THORNABY PRINCESS (7) Watch out for: KATHERINE PLACE (2)

ATR VERDICT: Denis Quinn landed this prize with a 66-1 shot last year and runs an intriguing stable debutant in the shape of IS SHE THE ONE. Formerly with Philip McBride, she showed potential when fourth at Redcar in May and could appreciate this first try at 6f now wearing cheekpieces. Baracca Rocks is capable of more and wears a visor for the first time, while Amnaa might do better now with Marco Botti.

Long Handicap: Caledonian Gold 7 - 5

ATR VERDICT: EVASIVE POWER wasn't quite at his best at Cork last time, but he is better judged on his length-and-three-quarter defeat behind Arecibo at Ayr in July and should appreciate another attempt at 6f. The Irish raider also wears cheekpieces for the first time and could prove too strong for Zahee, who showed greater signs of life at Kempton. Consequences might prove best of the remainder.

ATR VERDICT: VISIONARA struggled up in class and trip at Lingfield but should appreciate this assignment more. The Simon Crisford-trained three-year-old previously showed potential over 7f, and the assistance of Megan Nicholls claiming 3lb is another bonus towards her chances. Made Of Honour displayed promise earlier in the year and can perform creditably after a 217-day absence, while Warning Fire is also considered now tackling these calmer waters. Top Tip: VISIONARA (3) Watch out for: MADE OF HONOUR (2)

ATR VERDICT: FRIDAY FIZZ has shown bits of promise in her three career starts and the booking of Cieren Fallon for her handicap bow with first-time cheekpieces could see her take the step forward required. Kennocha returned to winning ways on her latest outing and is expected to be competitive despite a 3lb rise. Ariette Du Rue is an interesting contender on her UK debut having raced exclusively in the UAE so far. Top Tip: FRIDAY FIZZ (10) Watch out for: KENNOCHA (11)

ATR VERDICT: Trumpet Man is entitled to improve for his debut fourth at Chelmsford, and the extra yardage on this occasion could help him take a step forward. Shandoz enters calculations, but the vote goes to the newcomer YA HAYATI. He boasts strong credentials on pedigree, being a son of Dubawi out of a dual Grade 1 winner in the US, and he can continue a fine season for Charlie Appleby's juveniles.

ATR VERDICT: WARNING LIGHT stuck on late in the day to finish third at Kempton when attempting to land a hat-trick, and the manner in which she stayed on suggested she is worth another try at 1m4f. Forbidden Dance has been a slow burner in handicap company so far but could benefit from the application of blinkers, while Genuine Approval's recent C&D form warrants her a place on the shortlist.
