Long Handicap: Spotton 8 - 1, Laoise 8 - 0

ATR VERDICT: Fox Hill made every post a winning one to see off Kaafy at Catterick and can confirm that superiority on 6lb worse terms but, a day later, AUTUMN FLIGHT also tasted victory at Carlisle by doing it the hard way. Tim Easterby's sprinter is perhaps better suited to 6f than Fox Hill, so he gets the nod. Two runs for Roger Fell should have Double Martini primed for a big run on his handicap debut.

Top Tip: AUTUMN FLIGHT (2)
Watch out for: FOX HILL (5)

ATR VERDICT: SUPER FLORENCE's return to form has coincided with a stint at Musselburgh, and she finished her race off well to justify favouritism there last week. She has been hit with a 5lb rise but still remains fairly treated on her best efforts and is preferred to One Boy, who may have found the ground too testing here when attempting to supplement a Nottingham success. Guardia Svizzera took a step back in the right direction when third at Thirsk, and he rounds out the shortlist.

Top Tip: SUPER FLORENCE (3)
Watch out for: ONE BOY (5)

Long Handicap: Trulove 8 - 7, Griffin Street 8 - 7, Cozy Sky 8 - 6

ATR VERDICT: None of these arrive at the top of their game, but it is interesting that Gordon Elliott has sent a team over so maybe a chance can be taken on his COZY SKY. The daughter of Animal Kingdom struggled at Roscommon most recently, but her previous performances at Fairyhouse and Sligo hinted that a race such as this could be within range. I'll Be Good isn't getting any younger but is a dual course winner, with Jeffrey Harris and Lydiate Lady worth a mention too.

ATR VERDICT: THE LAST EMPEROR has run some decent races in defeat on the level this year and, despite disappointing in a Sligo maiden hurdle when last seen in July, this appears a good opportunity for Emmet Mullins' gelding to get back to winning ways. Set In Stone was a course winner a couple of starts ago and warrants a place on the shortlist along with Indomeneo, who can bounce back to form on a more conventional track than he encountered at Chester last time.

Top Tip: THE LAST EMPEROR (6)

3 (2)		42	MODAKHAR (IRE) 19 b g Battle Of Marengo - Lost Highway	3 9 - 2	B A Curtis K R Burke	-

ATR VERDICT: ROMAN STONE built on a promising debut at Carlisle when relishing softer underfoot conditions at the same track to score in handsome fashion. The son of Noble Mission appeals as having further progression to come and can successfully give 7lb to his rivals which are headed by Modakhar, who shaped as though the step up to a mile would be in his favour when second at Catterick earlier in the month. Bashful Boy would need to improve if taking his chance after an engagement at Gowran Park on Saturday.

9 (8)		607500	JUST HEATHER (IRE) 28 gr m Zebedee - Miss Sundance	5 8 - 7p	Cam Hardie J S Wainwright	56

Long Handicap: Just Heather 7 - 10

ATR VERDICT: KERMOUSTER had progressed nicely throughout the summer, winning three on the bounce before disappointing on her latest start at Musselburgh. She is worth forgiving that performance, having missed the break and proving unable to get into contention, and Grant Tuer's filly appears fairly handicapped being just 3lb higher than her last win at Carlisle. Caustic Love can bounce back to form stepping up in trip, while Lady Alavesa and Dream World complete the shortlist.

Long Handicap: Pammi 8 - 6

ATR VERDICT: CHICA BUENA has not run on the Flat since 2017, when she was trained by Brendan Duke, however, she's been active over hurdles for Keith Dagleish more recently and can count a Listed victory at Aintree last year among her four successes over timber. Handed an opening rating of 49 for her first handicap start on the level, she could be on a tantalising mark in this sphere. Gordon Elliott's raider, Viscount Wilson, and recent Chepstow second General Brook are others to consider.

Top Tip: CHICA BUENA (9)

ATR VERDICT: FUNNY MAN could appreciate the drop in trip and grade after picking up some minor money over the extended 2m at York last time and is open to a little more improvement in a retained visor, which was fitted for the first time on the Knavesmire. George Mallory steps up from 1m2f as he bids to shake off a 5lb rise for scoring at Haydock last month and can fight it out with Soloist, a last-start scorer at Newcastle now debuting for Keith Dalgleish, for the silver medal.
