TIMEFORM VIEW: SISKIN has looked all class to this point and had a bit up his sleeve when landing the Group 1 Phoenix Stakes at the Curragh last time, so he gets the narrow vote in this fascinating contest. French representative Earthlight, also a winner at the top level last time, ranks as the main danger ahead of Mums Tipple, who aims to back up a massive performance at York.

Timeform 1-2-3:
1: SISKIN (7)
2: EARTHLIGHT (1)
3: MUMS TIPPLE (6)
Jockey Colours: Royal blue

Timeform says: Unbeaten in 4 start to date, looking right up there top draw when grading down Raffle Prize to land the Prix Morry at Deauville last time, and looks bound to put up another bold showing here.

Timeform says: Highly promising colt who was back to winning ways with no Pinatubo to worry about in the Round Tower Stakes at the Curragh last time. This is much tougher, but he’s earned the right to be here.

Timeform says: Returned to form at Doncaster recently but has loads to find and no surprise if he’s used as a pacemaker.
Jockey Colours: Purple and white diamonds, purple sleeves

Timeform says: Followed a winning debut with a huge performance to land a valuable sales race at York’s Ebor meeting. Time and form of that race looks solid, so he’s high on the list despite the leap in grade.
